

THE MORNING APPEAL.

FRIDAY.....MARCH 22

WELL ANSWERED.

The Louisville Courier-Journal asks: What will the silver monometallists here say to Japan's demand that the Chinese war indemnity of $250,000,000 be paid in gold? Both Japan and China are silver nations, but the Land of the Rising Sun means to exact her pound of flesh in coin that will be good anywhere in the world's markets.

To which the Salt Lake Tribune makes the following pointed reply:

We don't know what the "silver monometallists" in Kentucky will say about it, supposing there to be such there. But we can say, in a very few words what the silver bimetalists here think about Japan's demand. They consider it just such a demand as a conquering or tyrannous creditor would naturally make; the purpose being to oppress to the utmost while preserving a nominal appearance of fairness. The difference between Japan's attitude in demanding gold and that of Wall Street sharks, is that Japan boldly places her demand on the basis of the conqueror, compelling hard times from a foreign nation because she is able to exact them as the fortune of war, while our own gold sharks make their tyrannous exactions from their fellow-citizens under the sham pretense of honesty and good faith.

THE NUDE.

The exhibition of nudity under various pretexts and excuses seems to be gaining in favor everywhere.

The telegraph informs us that Prof. Eakin's lecture on "Artistic Anatomy" at the Drexel Institute in Philadelphia has created somewhat of a stir. The Professor exhibited a nude male model before a mixed class, composed of men and women. Before exhibiting the nude in man, Prof. Eakin notified his class that any woman who objected to the model might retire. None did so. A formal complaint, after the lecture was over, was made to the faculty of the Institute. Professor Eakin's defense was invulnerable. He stated that it was necessary to have the model nude. "Sometimes," he added, "there are women who are a little squeamish, or overmodest, but it is not the young and pretty ones."

When Sandow exhibited himself in San Francisco in an almost nude state to lady audiences the theatre which exhibits women nearly nude, as an artistic proposition, results in a great swelling of the box office receipts.

At the present rate of speed it will not be many years before the primitive costumes of our edenic ancestors will be all the go. If it comes we will have to accept the situation as gracefully as possible.

More Laws.

The following are additional bills signed by the Governor within the last two days:

S B 77: an act to provide for the issuing of teachers' certificates by county boards of examinations and other matters properly connected therewith.

A B 116: an act to provide for the purchase of a portrait of ex-Governor Colecord, and to appropriate money therefor.

A B 128: an act relating to oleographic wills.

A B 119: an act to provide for the acceptance of lands granted by the United States to the State of Nevada.

Sub for A B 147: an act to amend section 4 of an act concerning consolidating certain county offices in Lyon county and regulating compensation of county officers in said county.

A B 162: an act to encourage the mining industry in the State of Nevada.

A B 67: an act allowing the payment of taxes in equal semi-annual installments, and regulating the collection of taxes on personal property.

A Dirty Job

Some time ago the Constable of Kennedy came to Austin and arrested Wm. Taylor on a warrant issued by the Kennedy Justice, on a complaint made by a fellow by the name of King, charging Taylor with stealing a bridle. Taylor was taken to Kennedy, through the snow, without means, and when the time came to try him no one appeared against him. It also appears that there was no semblance of a case against him, and the case was dismissed, and Taylor came back to Austin yesterday. The parties who perpetrated this great wrong on Taylor ought to be sent to a felons cell and be made to languish there the balance of their natural lives. There is no room at large for such scrubby beings.—Reveille.

The Sunset Telephone Company is beginning to experience sharp competition in various cities. By reason of the expiration of the Edison patent upon special features in the telephone, that instrument in a certain form is subject to use by any citizen. Therefore we see evidence of new companies about to spring up all over the country. In the State of California, the cities of Santa Cruz, Stockton and Sacramento are working for the formation of new companies. The Sunset company will be obliged to reduce its rate in many localities in order to hold its business.

Doc Hogan has a long winded description of the way the county division bill was defeated in the last session of the Legislature, but he maintains a discrete silence as to the way the bill was beaten in 1871 with his assistance.
